Jeffrey Finegan Book Signing Event

*Famous author will be at the Yorktown Battlefield Eastern National Museum Store
July 4th*

(Yorktown, Va.) – As the Find Your Park movement continues to engage new audiences, our partner Eastern National would like to invite visitors of all ages to join us at the Yorktown Battlefield Visitor Center, Wednesday, July 4, from 10:00 to 12:30 to meet esteemed author Jeffrey Finegan.

Jeffrey E. Finegan Sr. is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University with a Bachelors degree in broadcast communication. A native of New Jersey, his interest in history spans from the Norman Conquest of England to World War II with a concentration in George Washington, the American Civil War and historic architecture. He resides in the historic village of Finesville, New Jersey with his wife, Kimberly Ollio Finegan and two sons, Jeffrey E. Jr. and Peter J. Finegan.

A collector of George Washington manuscripts as well as other important early American documents, he has gained a reputation as a noted speaker on the topic of George Washington. He is the creator of the "I Knew George Washington" series and author of the three books that currently make up the series. He is a member of the Washington Association of New Jersey and the American Friends of Lafayette has a MGA in Applied Management, a BS in Aeronautical and Astronautically Engineering, and is a Program Management Professional (PMP).

Colonial National Historical Park includes both Historic Jamestowne and Yorktown Battlefield. Historic Jamestowne is jointly administered by the National Park Service and Preservation Virginia and preserves the original site of the first permanent English settlement in the New World. Yorktown Battlefield interprets the final major battle of the American Revolution, the victory of General George Washington's army which secured independence for the United States. The Colonial Parkway continues to link the sites in its 23 miles, and is today recognized as an "All-American Road."
