

Celebrate July 4th Where Independence was Won!

Yorktown's 2017 lineup includes free patriotic fun for the whole family

June 20, 2017

Join us for our 38th annual Fourth of July Celebration on Tuesday, July 4. There are many free events for the community as well as special programming at the American Revolution Museum at Yorktown (additional tickets required for non-York County residents).

Register for the Independence Day 8K & 5K Run/Walk, sponsored by the York County Historical Museum, to take the same path through the Colonial National Historical Park used by American and French allies to win the last major battle of the Revolutionary War, thus securing our independence. Pre-registration is recommended at <http://register.chronotrack.com/r/27846>.
