

The Gallery at York Hall opens April 1

This year marks the Gallery's 15th anniversary

March 22, 2017

The Gallery at York Hall opens on Saturday, April 1, for the 2017 season and is celebrating its 15th anniversary. Beginning April 1, the Gallery will be open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. Admission is free. The Gallery at York Hall is located at 301 Main Street in historic Yorktown and is a cooperative effort between the Celebrate Yorktown Committee and York County.

The Gallery is operated by the Celebrate Yorktown Committee and managed by volunteer Sharon Owen. Located in York Hall, the Gallery features a variety of themed exhibits that change every six to eight weeks. The exhibits feature the works of over 30 local artists, increasing the awareness of high quality art in the community and showcasing historic Yorktown as an arts destination. The Gallery's 30-plus volunteers serve the community by maintaining a visitor information area, offering brochures, maps, discounts, and friendly service and hospitality to over 18,000 visitors annually.

Spring and summer exhibits at the gallery include quilts, stained glass, photography and watercolors, featuring appearances by local photography artist David Mitchell May 5-7 in conjunction with the Yorktown Garden Tour and Stroll, and watercolor artist Hazel Camp with a demo scheduled for May 6. Don't miss local musician Timothy Seaman in the gallery on May 21. The spring/summer exhibits at the gallery are:

APRIL – MAY

'Quilts' Exhibit, featuring Quilts Past and Present

May 5-7 – David Mitchell, photography

May 6 – Hazel Camp, watercolors

May 7 – Tim Seaman, hammered dulcimer performance

JUNE

'Stained Glass' Exhibit, featuring artist Brenda Marion

June 4 & 11 – Author Andy Lightner, book signing

JULY-AUGUST

'Photography' Exhibit, featuring contemporary artist Paul Stevens

SEPTEMBER

'Pottery' Exhibit, featuring artist Keith Shamburger

Sept. 17 – Tom Duke, woodturning

For more information, call the Gallery at York Hall at (757) 890-4490 or visit www.visityorktown.org for a complete listing of planned 2017 exhibits.

