Feedback Welcome at York2040 Public Input Meetings; Next Session Sept. 15

Members of the Comprehensive Plan Review Steering Committee and County staff welcomed approximately 50 citizens for the first of two public input sessions about the ongoing updates of the Comprehensive Plan. The next public input session is Wednesday, September 15, from 7 to 9 p.m. at Tabb Library, 100 Long Green Blvd. While these meetings focus on the land use portion of the plan, citizens' opinions are welcomed on any aspect of future development of York County, including historic resources, broadband, transportation, etc. Comments are also welcomed via email to planning@yorkcounty.gov.
